August 2018

General advice warning

This information is about Cbus. It doesn’t take into account your specific needs, so you should look at your own financial position, objectives and requirements before making any financial decisions. Read the relevant Cbus Product Disclosure Statement to decide whether Cbus is right for you. Call Cbus on 1300 361 784 or visit www.cbusuper.com.au for a copy.

Cbus’ Trustee: United Super Pty Ltd
ABN 46 006 261 623 AFSL 233792
Cbus ABN 75 493 363 262

Quick Facts

Keep on track with Cbus by your side.
Unpaid super

What can you do to check if your employer has been making contributions?

To check if your employer has been paying into your Cbus super account, you can:

- Login to your online account, at www.cbussuper.com.au/login
- Call 1300 361 784 from 8am to 8pm AEST/AEDT - Monday to Friday.
- Download the Cbus app and check your account from your mobile phone. Visit www.cbussuper.com.au/app
- Ask your employer which fund they are paying your super into (it may not be Cbus), how much they are paying and how often. It’s important to check with your employer that all your super details are correct too.
- Speak to your Union Delegate or a Cbus Coordinator, who can check on your behalf.

Extra support for you

The Australian Tax Office (ATO) can also offer assistance when it comes to unpaid super. For more information, visit www.ato.gov.au

Like to know more?
You can visit www.cbussuper.com.au/unpaidsuper or give Cbus a call on 1300 361 784.

Are you on top of your super payments?
At Cbus we’re committed to ensuring our members get the super they’re entitled to.

Your employer is required by law to contribute at least 9.5% of your Ordinary Time Earnings into your super account.

Cbus requires employers to pay super contributions monthly, to ensure members don’t miss out on investment earnings and maintain any insurance cover they may have.