

PUBLIC TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2023

CBUS Superannuation Fund

Generated 15-12-2023

About this report

PRI reporting is the largest global reporting project on responsible investment. It was developed with investors, for investors.

PRI signatories are required to report publicly on their responsible investment activities each year. In turn, they receive a number of outputs, including a public and private Transparency Report.

The public Transparency Reports, which are produced using signatories' reported information, provide accountability and support signatories to have internal discussions about their practices and to discuss these with their clients, beneficiaries, and other stakeholders.

This public Transparency Report is an export of the signatory's responses to the PRI Reporting Framework during the 2023 reporting period. It includes the signatory's responses to core indicators, as well as responses to plus indicators that the signatory has agreed to make public.

In response to signatory feedback, the PRI has not summarised signatories' responses – the information in this document is presented exactly as it was reported.

For each of the indicators in this document, all options selected by the signatory are presented, including links and qualitative responses. In some indicators, all applicable options are included for additional context.

Responsible investment definitions

Within the PRI Reporting Framework Glossary, we provide definitions for key terms to guide reporting on responsible investment practices in the Reporting Framework. These definitions may differ from those used or proposed by other authorities and regulatory bodies due to evolving industry perspectives and changing legislative landscapes. Users of this report should be aware of these variations, as they may impact interpretations of the information provided.

Data accuracy

This document presents information reported directly by signatories in the 2023 reporting cycle. This information has not been audited by the PRI or any other party acting on its behalf. While this information is believed to be reliable, no representations or warranties are made as to the accuracy of the information presented.

The PRI has taken reasonable action to ensure that data submitted by signatories in the reporting tool is reflected in their official PRI reports accurately. However, it is possible that small data inaccuracies and/or gaps remain, and the PRI shall not be responsible or liable for such inaccuracies and gaps.

Section 1. Our commitment

- Why does your organisation engage in responsible investment?
- What is your organisation's overall approach to responsible investment, and what major responsible investment commitment(s) have you made?

Consistent with the Trustees long-term return objectives and the best financial interest's duty, responsible investment (RI) is a key pillar of Cbus' investment strategy to deliver to our members, stakeholders and governing bodies who expect Cbus to invest, protect and grow our members' retirement savings.

Guided by our Board Committee-approved Responsible Investment Policy, senior leadership is empowered to incorporate RI through the investment decision-making process and we seek to embed RI practices more broadly across the Fund. We also manage around 40% of FUM internally, so we can develop innovative and bespoke approaches to RI across investment classes.

Shaped by the Fund's investment strategy the Trustee requires application of RI to the Funds investment activities through three key pillars: integration, best practice research and stewardship, supported by a centralised RI team with 8 dedicated resources.

While our core focus is on integration of material ESG factors, we have identified key areas of focus: climate change and the energy transition, human, community, and labour rights (for example modern slavery, workplace safety). These areas of focus represent systemic risk, are aligned with our members' interests, are topics where we believe we can add value, and where we can measure, engage and report our progress.

Importantly, we strive to demonstrate RI leadership in asset classes where we invest directly and use our knowledge gained from the industries our members and employers work in.

For example, investing in the built environment (new properties and how we improve the sustainability of existing buildings), affordable housing, and supporting the energy transition, including an equitable transition for workers. All leading to job creation and nation building, which is great for the economy and our members returns.

As stewards, we encourage and advocate for better outcomes for our members' retirement savings. This includes actively playing a role in shaping the systems in which we operate and invest.

Our activities include taking leadership positions as Chair of the Australian Sustainable Finance Institute (ASFI) and the Investor Group on Climate Change (IGCC) along with Board membership of the Australian Council of Super Investors (ACSI). When dealing with systemic risks we need to work with a range of different stakeholders including our peers and key bodies to achieve better outcomes.

We also measure our activities and report on our progress (which is independently reviewed), so our members can be confident that we do what we say we do.

We believe that climate change is one of the most significant challenges we face today.

Our climate change goals and latest Climate Change Roadmap are published on our website (<https://www.cbussuper.com.au/about-us/sustainability/climate-change-goals>). Our climate goals are:

- Net zero portfolio emissions by 2050
- Contribute to a 45% reduction in real world emissions by 2030
- 1% of our total funds under management (FUM) is available to be allocated to climate related investments
- Engaging with our highest Australian equity holding emitters to improve their responses to climate change.

Section 2. Annual overview

- Discuss your organisation's progress during the reporting year on the responsible investment issue you consider most relevant or material to your organisation or its assets.
- Reflect on your performance with respect to your organisation's responsible investment objectives and targets during the reporting year. Details might include, for example, outlining your single most important achievement or describing your general progress on topics such as the following (where applicable):
 - refinement of ESG analysis and incorporation
 - stewardship activities with investees and/or with policymakers
 - collaborative engagements
 - attainment of responsible investment certifications and/or awards

During the CY22 we have enhanced the sophistication and robustness of our approach through resourcing, governance frameworks, uplift in climate change initiatives, stewardship, and continued industry leadership.

RESOURCING:

We have increased RI resourcing and elevated the seniority of roles through internal promotion of a new Head of Responsible Investment and recruitment of a Head of ESG Integration.

GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORKS:

With increased resourcing our risk management framework has been enhanced, through:

- introduction of new governance forums to support continued development in ESG integration and oversight of our climate change work program

- strengthening our external manager selection, appointment, and monitoring process, and
- continued refresh of key risk indicators and controls.

We released the third iteration of our Climate Change Roadmap outlining actions moving us towards achieving our real world carbon emission reduction goals, detailing changes made to how we measure and view emissions (having adopted methodology proposed by the European Union).

This transparency provides our members and stakeholders with a clearer view of our progress towards achieving our 2030 goal.

To support this objective, we have expanded our data coverage through onboarding new climate data metrics including climate targets, a high-level view of strategy, alignment through an implied temperature rise and a range of climate risk metrics across transition and physical risk.

The success of our two previous roadmaps gives confidence in our current path.

For example, our wholly owned subsidiary - Cbus Property's commercial office portfolio reached Net Zero Operational Carbon eight years ahead of schedule. The portfolio was recognised under the NABERS Sustainable Portfolios Index as Australia's most environmentally sustainable office portfolio.

STEWARDSHIP:

The Fund continues to work alongside others where we can share knowledge and learnings, manage resources and be more effective in our actions.

Examples include:

- Chairing ASFI and seat on ASFI Taxonomy Project Steering Committee
- Chairing IGCC
- Board membership of ACSI
- Signatory to 2022 Global Investor Statement to Governments on the Climate Crisis and an investor letter and submission to the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB) supporting sustainability disclosure standards
- Support for:
 - o Australian Industry Energy Transition Initiative on decarbonisation of heavy industry supply chains
 - o An education forum for the Materials and Embodied Carbon Leaders' Alliance (MECLA)

- o Climate Action 100+ initiative, and
- o Investors against Slavery and Trafficking Asia Pacific (IAST APAC)

Cbus successfully advocated for the establishment of ACSI's Cultural Heritage Risk Management Working Group, chaired by Cbus' Head of Responsible Investment.

The working group has produced research and expectations of listed companies' engagement with First Peoples underpinning ACSI's priority engagement and has now been incorporated into the global initiative 2030 Vision for the Mining Sector.

INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP:

In CY2022 Cbus continued to be recognised by industry groups for its leadership:

- Chant West Best Fund: Integrity 2022 for the second year running.
- Investor Group on Climate Change - Climate Finance Award for Outstanding Initiative by an Asset Owner – recognition for innovative in-house modelling to support the Fund's climate commitments
- Cbus named a Rainmaker ESG Leader 2022
- Named Responsible Investment Leader in RIAA's 2022 Responsible Investment Benchmark Report.

Section 3. Next steps

- What specific steps has your organisation outlined to advance your commitment to responsible investment in the next two years?

Over the next two years, Cbus has specific objectives in relation to each of the three pillars of research, integration, and stewardship, as outlined in longer term Cbus Investment Strategy.

Our recent team expansion has accelerated our program of work and enables more flexibility to respond in line with further anticipated internalisation, increasing regulation, scrutiny, and member expectations.

Specifically, on research we aim to develop greater information sharing through an ESG data warehouse, an increased focus on social factors and biodiversity.

On integration we aim to uplift processes and skills in our decision-making process. Our stewardship space will focus on developing and implement our next two-year strategy and preparing for new transparency and disclosure approaches and implementing our third climate roadmap. See further below.

ESG DATA WAREHOUSE

We are introducing an ESG data warehouse to improve our ability to ingest, analyse and utilise ESG data going forward.

Our primary objective is that our Responsible Investment team and Investment Team have access to enhanced insights and decision making through customised data analysis. This will include development of a climate risk model where we will be able to look at transition risk and physical risk across all listed assets for a range of climate scenarios.

We are seeking to improve the quality of data capture to prepare for greater specifications around annual reporting and disclosure standards, including those proposed by the ISSB standards.

ESG INTEGRATION

Building upon our increased resources in this area, we will enhance systems and processes to further improve manager selection and investment decision making through asset class guidelines, ensuring a fit-for-purpose evidence base for decisions, and with the aim of improving our alignment with external managers and directly owned assets.

MEASURING AND INVESTING IN REAL WORLD OUTCOMES:

Our third Climate Change Roadmap focusses on action and measurement, marking a shift from setting targets and measuring emissions to accelerating the hard work of real-world impact.

Once complete, the roadmap will include:

- enhancing frameworks for our 1% climate portfolio (see below)
- developing climate principles to help articulate how we invest through the transition,
- developing a decarbonisation strategy,
- enhancing engagement and alignment with assets and managers, and
- expanding our scenario analysis and how we measure the progress of our portfolio targets.

We are refreshing the governance framework supporting our 1% allocation to climate investments to allow Cbus to use this allocation to invest in the technologies needed for a low carbon economy and finance the transition.

This investment sleeve accommodates investments that do not fit within the broader risk/return profiles of existing portfolios.

MAINTAINING TRANSPARENCY AND DISCLOSURE LEADERSHIP:

Cbus seeks to remain a leader in RI disclosures. Our team is preparing for disclosures in line with ISSB standards and mandatory climate reporting in Australia, responding to developments in modern slavery reporting and emerging biodiversity disclosures including the proposed introduction of TFND reporting.

In an environment of heightened scrutiny, we are also developing and implementing an internal communication strategy to meet the future needs of our members and broader stakeholders.

Indicator	Type of indicator	Dependent on	Gateway to	Disclosure	Subsection	PRI Principle
PGS 4	PLUS	PGS 1	N/A	PUBLIC	Responsible investment policy elements	1 – 6

Does your formal responsible investment policy(ies) identify a link between your responsible investment activities and your fiduciary duties or equivalent obligations?

☒ (A) Yes

Elaborate:

As we set out in our Responsible Investment Supplement, responsible investment is a fundamental investment belief the Trustee considers necessary to deliver long term value creation for beneficiaries.

The Trustee believes that responsible investment practices are entirely consistent with its long-term return objectives and in accordance with acting in the best financial interests of the Fund's members under its fiduciary duties and the sole purpose test.

Well-governed companies that manage risks and opportunities in their operations and supply chains such as climate change, workforce rights, safety, diversity and inclusion, and respect the communities in which they operate will enhance value for our members over the long term.

For the Trustee, responsible investment means taking account of ESG risks and opportunities in the investment decision making process, exercising positive influence through Fund investments and the operations of the Fund itself.

The Trustee believes that responsibility extends to influencing the shift towards a sustainable financial system and has articulated this through its recognition of the SDGs.

The achievement of the SDGs will improve long term financial returns, through the reduction in the volatility in financial markets brought about by climate change, social and economic inequality and unequal access to resources such as energy, water and food.

The Trustee believes it can meaningfully contribute to the SDGs through both the Fund investments and strategic activities.

CLIMATE CHANGE

The Trustee believes that climate change creates both investment risks and opportunities for the Fund's investments and reflects the need to advocate for an orderly transition to a climate resilient economy.

The Fund has developed a position statement to help guide the integration of climate change considerations in accordance with the Investment Governance Framework. This approach will enable the Fund to focus on making decisions that will lead to better long term retirement outcomes for Fund members. The position statement is approved by the Trustee Board and is reviewed as required.

BUILT ENVIRONMENT

The Trustee believes it has a responsibility to take a leadership role in the built environment in which many of the Fund's members work.

The Fund will seek opportunities to incorporate responsible investment within the built environment including the development of sustainable building and construction practices.

THE FUND

The Trustee believes the Fund should operate in a manner that is consistent with its approach to responsible investment. Hence, the Trustee will seek to incorporate its responsible investment practices within the broader Fund.

How does your organisation, or the external service providers or external managers acting on your behalf, prioritise the investees or other entities on which to focus its stewardship efforts?

Cbus prioritises its stewardship efforts based on the size of our holdings in the entity and/or the size of the portfolio company/asset/property itself. The materiality of ESG factors on financial and/or operational performance is another criterion we use while deciding the focus of our stewardship activities, as are specific ESG factors with systemic influence. For instance, the work done as part of our Climate Change Roadmap is being used to generate carbon reduction targets for the portfolio, to help identify sectors where transition risk is common, and to inform our engagement priorities. Monitoring of managers with higher exposures to climate change risk are also prioritised for engagement using this data.

Relevant investment teams are involved in engagement prioritisation and setting engagement objectives with outcomes shared with the teams.

Training sessions on stewardship including voting and engagement are held across the team. Engagement is being prioritised over divestment, with key high emitting companies being prioritised for collaborative and/or direct engagement around carbon reduction and mitigation of transition risk. Manager alignment to carbon reduction targets has been prioritised in the property and infrastructure asset classes. Priority engagements include First Nations-related issues, safety, our Top 20 Australian highest emitters, participating in Climate Action 100+ engagement with Incitec Pivot Limited, and leading two engagements for the IAST/APAC Modern slavery collaborative initiative.

Cbus is a founding member of ACSI, who provide research on ASX listed companies and are a strong voice on important ESG issues. Cbus is a member of the ACSI Board and its Member Advisory Committee, along with also providing input into EOS Federated Hermes into engagement prioritisation through surveys and discussion.

How does your organisation ensure that its policy on stewardship is implemented by the external service providers to which you have delegated stewardship activities?

☒ (A) Example(s) of measures taken when selecting external service providers:

Assess the adequacy of coverage across our portfolio, and the method of identifying matters to engage upon.

☒ (B) Example(s) of measures taken when designing engagement mandates and/or consultancy agreements for external service providers:

We participate on the ACSI Member Advisory Council and recommends engagement themes to the ACSI Board for approval. Federated Hermes EOS seeks input via survey and discussion.

ACSI members are all asset owners or similar entities including asset management bodies wholly owned/controlled by asset owners. This means that its governance and strategic direction comes exclusively from asset owners and that ACSI's Governance Guidelines, used for engagement, voting and advocacy, are established by members. ACSI is owned exclusively by its members. ACSI's Governance Guidelines can be found at this link: <https://acsi.org.au/publications/governance-guidelines/>

ACSI and its members annually create and agree a list of engagement target companies with specific objectives for each. ACSI implements these engagement plans through constructive engagement with ASX300 boards. ACSI monitors and reports progress back to members semi-annually through half-year and full-year reports and on-demand through its online portal 'ACSI Delta'.

☒ (C) Example(s) of measures taken when monitoring the stewardship activities of external service providers:

ACSI is inherently aligned to its members through its membership and governance structure. ACSI is owned exclusively by its members. Cbus, therefore, directly monitors alignment between ACSI's activities and the Fund's stewardship policies.

ACSI members are the only representatives on ACSI's key decision-making and monitoring groups (the Board and the Member Advisory Council). This ensures strong alignment between ACSI's philosophy and member goals, and an effective mechanism for ongoing monitoring of ACSI activities.

In relation to our global engagement service provider Federated Hermes EOS our monitoring activity is conducted through regular reporting, education sessions and briefings from engagers.

Cbus' internal equities team undertook a 1x1 call with the Chair of a prominent ASX-listed technology company, which is a stock directly held by Cbus. Topics of discussion included executive remuneration, hiring, strategy, management and company culture. The team also gained insights into the company's technology investments and strategy post a corporate restructuring. All of this formed an input into the team's assessment of the stock and helped maintain conviction in the investment case.

Cbus is a signatory to the ACSI Stewardship Code and produces a stewardship statement. Cbus engages both directly and via collaborative engagement initiatives and service providers such as Federated Hermes EOS, ACSI, and Climate Action 100+. Cbus has been a signatory to the ACSI Asset Owner Stewardship Code since 2018. Priority engagements include safety, First Nations-related issues, our Top 20 Australian highest emitters, and leading two engagements for the IAST/APAC Modern slavery collaborative initiative. Cbus votes all company meetings in all markets globally where practicable.

Cbus' voting practices for the ASX300 and globally are aligned with the ACSI Corporate Governance Guidelines to ensure consistency of our voting process. We actively review resolutions based on criteria approved by the Investment Committee. The Fund takes an active approach when voting on resolutions for Australian companies and for our directly held global equities. We assess shareholder proposals on a case-by-case basis and have supported proposals as a signal to companies that the pace of change by a company is too slow or disclosure is inadequate. For ASX companies we inform them about our reasons for supporting the proposal.

We seek a range of inputs to inform our decisions with all decisions being made in the best interests of our members. The Fund also exercises its ownership rights in relation to pooled unlisted investments working with other investors in the pooled fund to provide a collective voice and participate on investment advisory committees.

Cbus also undertakes advocacy activities such as submissions to government and regulatory bodies with the aim of influencing the broader market and promoting a shift towards a sustainable financial system. The focus is primarily on influencing standards, guidelines and regulatory reform that support long term value creation. The Fund has a preference to undertake advocacy alongside others, for example through organisations such as ACSI, the Australian Sustainable Finance Institute (ASFI), Investor Group on Climate Change (IGCC), the Responsible Investment Associations Australia (RIAA), and the PRI.

How does your organisation ensure vote confirmation, i.e. that your votes have been cast and counted correctly?

In terms of our vote execution, CGI Glass Lewis provides ballots to its clients in ViewPoint as soon as they are received from the custodian, enabling Cbus to have as much time as possible to make its voting decisions. Once the ballots are voted, they are then provided to the relevant local agent in advance of their specific deadline to prevent any risk of rejection due to late vote. ViewPoint also allows us to see confirmation of acceptance once the votes have been submitted.

Our service provider, ACSI, continues to monitor and engage regulators about improving the voting process. ACSI has participated in discussions and commissioned research about administrative complexities, costs, potential failures and improvements that can be made. The evidence base for the advocacy work ACSI does on this topic is a research project in 2012 titled 'Institutional Proxy Voting in Australia'.

Voting by a show of hands has also been another focus area. ACSI is part of the ASX Corporate Governance Council, which released Principles and Recommendations including 6.4: "A listed entity should ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are divided by a poll rather than by a show of hands." ACSI actively supported this change through our submission and Council membership.

Directly, and through collaborations with international investors, ACSI continually asks companies to cease using 'show of hands' processes at AGMs. These efforts have seen a dramatic reduction in companies adopting that practice over time.

ACSI continues to engage with companies on the quality and depth of their TCFD analysis of material climate risks and opportunities.
- 29 of 30 target companies now have Net Zero commitments in place.
- Majority of the target companies explicitly link or commit to link executive incentive pay to climate change objectives.
- There were eight advisory votes on climate held by priority climate companies which was driven through ACSI engagement, with priority companies putting forward climate transition plans for a shareholder advisory vote with varying levels of shareholder support.
- 22 of the 30 priority companies have set short-term targets for emission reductions and to drive their decarbonisation transition.
- 30 of the 30 priority companies have now set medium-term emissions reduction targets or abatement ambitions, reflecting ongoing engagement with ACSI to further company transition pathways.
- 29 of the 30 priority companies have also now set long-term targets, these include targets to reach Net Zero operational Scope 1 and 2 emissions.

There is one remaining priority company without a long-term target, which remains a priority and escalated focus for engagement with ACSI.

- ACSI and its members also engaged with a number of companies on just and equitable transition pathways for materially exposed industries, to ensure that companies have plans and strategies in place for accelerated asset closures for affected workers and communities.
- ACSI and its members also engaged with a number of companies on industry association alignment and disclosure, which drove a material uplift in how companies reported association alignment, standards for lobbying and measures they take where they identified misaligned associations. This engagement included one company committing to a detailed annual review, and another company terminating its industry association membership over concerns related to climate lobbying.

ACSI and its members have engaged with priority companies and focused on companies being able to demonstrate the following:

- Genuine ambition to build long-lasting constructive relationships with First Nations people.
- Free prior and informed consent (FPIC) built into policies and practices.
- Improving quality of disclosure.
- Policies that commit companies to respect First Nations people's rights and cultural heritage, aligned with international standards e.g., UNDRIP, UNGPs or IFC Performance Standards.
- A clear process for boards to obtain assurance that risks are appropriately identified, mitigated, and managed.
- Assessment of whether agreements/consent need to be updated and do not have problematic confidentiality clauses.

ACSI has met with the boards and/or senior management of the 11 priority companies, seeking for an improvement in practices and transparency on First Nations Engagement. ACSI held more than 20 meetings on these issues in 2022.

Across the 1-10 year horizon we have identified the following risks and opportunities: policy risk and opportunity; increasing liability risk; stranded asset risk; opportunities across pillars of decarbonisation; increasing exposure to physical risks as transition is delayed.

Specify the risks and opportunities identified and your relevant standard planning horizon:

Across the 10-30 year horizon we have identified the following risks and opportunities: continued opportunities across pillars of decarbonisation; increased assets exposed to direct physical impacts; disruption to global supply chains and workforce; geographic divergence in climate change impact to capital market assumptions; reduced viability of certain industries in geographies where climate impacts are most extreme; resilience of climate investments under a stalled transition; lower growth as capital is redirected to resilience/rebuilding.

Does your organisation integrate climate-related risks and opportunities affecting your investments in its overall investment strategy, financial planning and (if relevant) products?

☒ (A) Yes, our overall investment strategy, financial planning and (if relevant) products integrate climate-related risks and opportunities

Describe how climate-related risks and opportunities have affected or are expected to affect your investment strategy, financial planning and (if relevant) products:

Cbus has utilised investment-wide roadmaps to guide how climate risks and opportunities are incorporated into our overall investment strategy. We have a net zero 2050 target that currently covers scope 1 and 2 emissions across 70% of our portfolio and includes a 2030 net zero operational emissions target across Australian property managers. We have established a climate-related investment sleeve that aims to capture both solution and transition opportunities that do not fit the standard risk-return profile of established asset classes, this sleeve can reach 1% of funds under management. We have developed an engagement strategy that targets the 20 ASX-listed companies that contribute most to Cbus' financed emissions, and utilise our service providers to engage with our high emitting global holdings. Work is underway to quantify climate risk across the portfolio and measure the alignment of our portfolio to a well-below 2 degree future. Actions within our current roadmap are focused on increasing measurement (increasing the portfolio carbon footprint coverage beyond the current 70%), expanding measurement (moving beyond scope 1 and 2 to consider scope 3 emissions and assessment of forward-looking metrics), and alignment (engaging with external managers and assets to increase alignment of climate awareness and action).

During the reporting year, what steps did your organisation take to identify and take action on the actual and potentially negative outcomes for people connected to your investment activities?

☒ (A) We assessed the human rights context of our potential and/or existing investments and projected how this could connect our organisation to negative human rights outcomes

Explain how these activities were conducted:

We perform whole of portfolio analysis with an external data provider FairSupply to assist potential modern slavery risk across our portfolio. This analysis allows us to target our engagement with external managers and direct holdings to confirm risk awareness and mitigation approaches. We also use Sustainalytics data to understand serious and material controversies and business responses.

☐ (C) We consulted with individuals and groups who were at risk or already affected, their representatives and/or other relevant stakeholders such as human rights experts

☒ (D) We took other steps to assess and manage the actual and potentially negative outcomes for people connected to our investment activities

Specify:

We encouraged industry leading developments to lower the risk of cleaning workers being subject to poor quality workplace environments.

Explain how these activities were conducted:

Cbus' wholly owned subsidiary, Cbus Property, is a proud member of the Cleaning Accountability Framework (CAF). Cbus Property's assessment is that CAF is the most effective supply chain and auditing standard for the cleaning industry. Cbus Property uses CAF to demonstrate our commitment to a respectful, safe, and fair environment for cleaning workers, with the added advantage of it being an anti-modern slavery measure. Cbus Property cleaners are a crucial part of our wider property management team. Despite the difficulties posed by the COVID 19 pandemic during the Reporting Period, Cbus Property has progressed the CAF certification program across the Cbus Property portfolio. This resulted in the certification of two buildings and one precinct, with the result that 87% of the managed office portfolio is now CAF certified with plans to complete the rest of the office portfolio by the end of the 2022 calendar year. Cbus Property is also investigating CAF implementation across its retail portfolio.

If you invest in pooled funds, describe how you incorporate responsible investment aspects into the selection, appointment and/or monitoring of external investment managers.

Provide example(s) below

(A) Selection

We follow the same process as for all manager selection but we seek to understand the manager's openness to additional contractual obligations through side letter arrangements in relation to ESG integration, climate risk and carbon intensity reporting, LP advisory committee participation, and regular reporting and elevation of material issues.

(B)
Appointment

We follow the same process as for all manager appointments but we impose contractual obligations in relation to ESG integration, climate risk and carbon intensity, LP advisory committee participation, and regular reporting and elevation of material issues.

- (C) Monitoring Regular manager monitoring is performed consistent with our other external manager arrangements which is informed by annual ESG reporting deliverables provided by pooled fund managers supported by bespoke data requests.

Describe how your organisation engaged with external investment managers to improve their responsible investment practices during the reporting year.

We engaged with external emerging markets fund managers with portfolios assessed as potentially higher risk. Through this engagement we learned about plans to enhance engagement with portfolio companies on modern slavery risk identification and management. We will continue to monitor progress in relation to evolution of processes, approach, and outcomes from engagement. We also held meetings with external managers to understand current industry best practices in relation to identification of strategies and tools that can be applied to our Factor (quantitative/systematic) strategies.

During the reporting year, how did your organisation use stewardship with investees to take action on sustainability outcomes, including preventing and mitigating actual and potential negative outcomes?

(A) Across all sustainability outcomes

(1) Describe your approach

(3) Example

(B) Sustainability Outcome #1:

(B) Sustainability Outcome #1:	Net Zero Carbon Emissions
(1) Describe your approach	Cbus's approach to preventing and mitigating actual and potential negative outcomes in relation to climate change includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Voting in support of climate action plans, shareholder proposals (where relevant) and/or against director elections and remuneration reports where we wished to signal more action was required to manage and mitigate climate risks.- Engaging with our top 20 ASX highest emitters directly and/or collaboratively alongside ACSI and CA100+- Advocating for improved standards and regulations both directly and through ACSI, ASFI and IGCC
(2) Stewardship tools or activities used	(1) Engagement (2) (Proxy) voting at shareholder meetings
(3) Example	1. Cbus voted in support of Rio Tinto's first advisory Say on Climate vote as the proposal involved increased target ambition (including Scope 3 emissions reductions), commitment to capex spend, remuneration metrics, portfolio alignment with future facing commodities, use of a 1.5-degree scenario, and Rio's commitment to engagement if the vote received a low level of shareholder support. 2. Cbus has been the lead engager, alongside other support investors, in a CA100+ collaborative engagement with Incitec Pivot (IPL). IPL is an Australian-based multinational corporation engaged in the production and supply of fertilisers, explosives, and chemicals. The emissions from IPL's core areas of operation have been classified as hard-to-abate from a climate change perspective. IPL is taking action to bring forward and set more ambitious emissions reduction targets and transition towards a more sustainable future, and the company held its first Say on Climate at its 2023 AGM.

3. ACSI and its members analysed 'Say on Climate' proposals, where companies put forward shareholder advisory resolutions on their climate transition plans at eight ASX companies during 2022. Through both engagement and proxy voting efforts, ACSI sought to assess how companies' disclosed Net Zero pathway. Companies' transition plans were assessed against a range of factors including the short-, medium- and long-term emission reduction targets, its integration of its decarbonisation strategy within its broader business strategy, progress against targets, alignment of industry associations, quality of scenario analysis and resilience testing of a company. ACSI also secured commitments from companies where its climate transition plan was assessed as a work in progress, including one company committing to developing Scope 3 emissions reduction targets in FY23.

STEWARDSHIP WITH EXTERNAL INVESTMENT MANAGERS

Indicator	Type of indicator	Dependent on	Gateway to	Disclosure	Subsection	PRI Principle
SO 10	PLUS	OO 5, SO 5	N/A	PUBLIC	Stewardship with external investment managers	2

During the reporting year, how did your organisation, or the external service providers acting on your behalf, engage with external investment managers to ensure that they take action on sustainability outcomes, including preventing and mitigating actual and potential negative outcomes?

(A) Across all sustainability outcomes

(1) Describe your approach

Our primary approach to engaging with external investment managers is through an annual requirement to report on material ESG issues affecting each manager's portfolio, and within this broader requirement, a specific requirement to report and comment on carbon emissions from the investee companies to the extent that reporting this information is available. This baseline engagement has been used to inform more targeted engagement approaches in following years.

Alongside this, our investment management arrangements have specific safety and modern slavery event reporting requirements to capture when adverse events occur, and this is followed up with engagement and discussing rectification plans with the manager on a case-by-case basis.
