Introduction

This Tax Transparency Report covers the 2022/2023 financial year (FY2023).

The Voluntary Tax Transparency Code (the Code) is a set of principles and minimum standards to guide medium and large business on the public disclosure of tax information. The Code was developed by the Board of Taxation and endorsed by the Federal Government.

This report meets the set of principles and minimum standards guide in respect to large businesses on public disclosures of tax information recommended under the Code. As a large taxpayer, Cbus understands the importance of acting in a transparent manner and to help educate the public about its compliance with Australian and international tax laws. Accordingly, Cbus is a voluntary participant in this disclosure regime.

Cbus' International Investments

Cbus invests in many different jurisdictions around the world, including developed and emerging markets. Cbus also invests across a wide range of different assets, including listed equities, fixed interest instruments, property, private equity and infrastructure.

As part of our due diligence process, when investing into these different countries, Cbus ensures that the fund complies with the relevant tax laws in those jurisdictions, paying the appropriate amount of foreign tax under a reasonable reading of the law.

Where tax is paid in those foreign jurisdictions, Cbus is generally, unless otherwise denied under Australian tax law, allowed an appropriate amount of foreign tax credits in Australia which offsets that foreign tax paid against any Australian tax payable on that same income. This effectively prevents double taxation on income (if the foreign tax is allowed as a tax credit in Australia).

Due to commercial reasons, Cbus does have some investments in pooled entities that are in certain low or no tax jurisdictions. These pooled entities aggregate funds from investors all over the world and invests into various sectors and jurisdictions.

Investing into global pooled entities allows for commercial and business efficiencies. For example, it allows Cbus to invest with other foreign institutional investors into quality assets (and projects) that Cbus might not necessarily have the opportunity or capacity to invest in alone. Aggregating funds in this way permits tax to be paid where those investments are located as well as when the income is returned to investors (in Australia for Cbus).
