

 Important information about your account

The cost of insurance is changing

For over 40 years Cbus Super has delivered strong, long-term returns to our members, and we work hard to provide you with the best value possible.

This update will help you understand important changes to your insurance cover that will take effect on 5 July 2025 and 1 September 2025.

Insurance through Cbus Super protects you and your family when you need it most.

How much you pay for cover depends on your age, occupation category and the type of cover you have. Each year we negotiate carefully with our insurer to get you the best value cover we can.

Weekly cost per unit of cover from 5 July 2025

The table below shows how much one unit of income protection (IP) cover will cost, and how much it will change for Cbus Corporate Super members:

There are no changes to the cost of death cover or total and permanent disablement (TPD) cover for Cbus Corporate Super members. These changes will apply automatically so you don't need to do anything. A new product disclosure statement (PDS) and other information that forms part of the PDS, including the insurance guides, will be available from 5 July 2025 at cbussuper.com.au/pds. To find out more, and to check the cost of your insurance cover, log into your online account at cbussuper.com.au/login after 5 July 2025, or give us a call.

Changes to IP cover from 1 September 2025

IP cover provides a regular monthly income if you're unable to work due to accident or illness. The amount you may receive depends on the amount of cover you choose, and the amount of your pre-injury salary. We're pleased to let you know that following increases to the rate of Superannuation Guarantee (SG), we're increasing your cover and the maximum amount you can claim:

From

The lower of:
Up to $30,000 a month
OR
85% of your salary

75% goes to you
10% goes to your super

➡

To

The lower of:
Up to $30,000 a month
OR
87% of your salary

75% goes to you
12% goes to your super

This change will help make sure that your super savings continue to grow, even while you're unable to work.

You don't need to do anything, this update will apply automatically on 1 September 2025.
