The cost of insurance is changing

For over 40 years Cbus Super has delivered strong, long-term returns to our members, and we work hard to provide you with the best value possible.

This update will help you understand important changes to your insurance cover that will take effect on 5 July 2025 and 1 September 2025.

How much you pay for cover depends on your age, occupation category and the type of cover you have. Each year we negotiate carefully with our insurer to get you the best value cover we can.

Weekly cost per unit of cover from 5 July 2025

The table below shows how much one unit of death cover and one unit of total and permanent disablement (TPD) cover will cost, and how much it will change:

| Age band | Manual | | Non-manual and professional | | Electech (Cbus Industry Super only) | |
|----------|------------------|------------------|-----------------------------|------------------|--|------------|

Changes to IP cover from 1 September 2025

IP cover provides a regular monthly income if you're unable to work due to accident or illness. The amount you may receive depends on the amount of cover you choose, and the amount of your pre-injury salary.

We're pleased to let you know that following increases to the rate of Superannuation Guarantee (SG), we're increasing the maximum amount you can claim:

From

The lower of:
Up to $30,000 a month

OR

85% of your salary

75% goes to you
10% goes to your super

➡

To

The lower of:
Up to $30,000 a month

OR

87% of your salary

75% goes to you
12% goes to your super

This change will help make sure that your super savings continue to grow, even while you're unable to work.

You don't need to do anything, this update will apply automatically on 1 September 2025.
