When the employee has chosen a fund other than your default fund, contributions in the two months after receiving the form can be made to either your employer default fund or your employee's chosen fund. Contributions after the two months must be paid to the employee's chosen fund.

Compliance information

Dear employer,

Cbus Super is:

- a complying resident regulated super fund
- not currently or ever has been under direction not to accept any contributions from an employer sponsor (under s.63 of SIS)
- able to accept super contributions from employers on behalf of their employees
- an authorised MySuper provider and meets the insurance requirements to be chosen as a default fund by employers.

If you are not an existing Cbus Super participating employer, go to our website to find out how to register and pay your employee super to Cbus Super.

This information is about Cbus Super. It doesn't account for your specific needs. Please consider your financial position, objectives and requirements before making financial decisions. Read the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and Target Market Determination to decide if Cbus Super is right for you. Call 1300 361 784 or visit cbussuper.com.au.
