Step 2: Consider providing your tax file number (see section 7 of the PDS for details)

You should provide your tax file number (TFN) as you may pay extra tax if you don't. It also allows you to top up your super with your take-home pay. If you do give us your TFN we'll use it to help identify and administer your super account.

My TFN is:

Step 3: Making contributions to your CBUS account

You must have at least $250 in your CBUS account within 31 days of when we accept this form.

This amount can be a personal contribution or a rollover from another super fund. Any insurance cover you've applied for won't start unless accepted by the insurer, and your account balance is at least $250 within 31 days of us accepting your accurately completed Change my insurance: Personal Super form.

There are three ways you can make your first payment and any ongoing payments to your CBUS account:

- Direct debit – complete the details below (check that your financial institution offers this option first).
- Cheque – Please make your cheque payable to 'CBUS' and return it with this form, or send it with a deposit slip available at cbussuper.com.au/deposit or by calling us.
- BPAY® – You can use BPAY after your account is set up. Call us or register online to see your BPAY details.

® Registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518

Read the Direct debit service agreement thoroughly. You can find the Direct debit service agreement online at cbussuper.com.au/forms or call us for a copy. The agreement is designed to explain what your obligations are when undertaking a direct debit arrangement with us. It also details what our obligations are to you as your direct debit provider. The agreement forms part of the terms and conditions of your direct debit request and should be read in conjunction with your direct debit request. You can only make personal contributions via direct debit – you cannot make salary sacrifice contributions this way.

Planning to claim a tax deduction for contributions you make? From age 67 you'll also need to meet the work test (or exemption criteria) and your ability to claim stops around a month after your 75th birthday.

We can only accept direct debit contributions if you've provided your tax file number (TFN). The government also limits how much you can contribute to super without paying extra tax – visit ato.gov.au.

Step 4: How to choose who gets your super if you die

Beneficiaries are who you nominate to receive your death benefit (made up of your super and any insurance benefit you may have) if you die.

If you make a valid binding death benefit nomination, it makes things simple. We must pay your death benefit to the people you nominate, in the percentages you choose.

You can make or cancel a binding nomination at any time.

You can make a binding death benefit nomination in minutes through the CBUS member portal. Once you've received your CBUS member number, go to cbussuper.com.au/register to set up your online member account.

If you prefer, you can complete the Binding death benefit nomination form, available at cbussuper.com.au/binding, or call us and we'll post it to you.

If you haven't made a valid death benefit nomination, your death benefit will be paid to your surviving current spouse. If you don't have a surviving current spouse it will be paid equally to your surviving children. If you don't have any surviving children it will be paid to your estate. In circumstances where we can't pay your death benefit to your estate, we may pay it to another person (as permitted by law), or otherwise transfer it to the ATO as unclaimed money.

Step 5: Choose how to invest your account

If you don't make a choice, your super will be invested in the Growth (MySuper) investment option. Before choosing, we strongly recommend you read the Investment guide at cbussuper.com.au/investments and you may wish to seek advice. You can also call the CBUS Advice team on 1300 361 784.

Your privacy is important

CBUS handles personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), including the Australian Privacy Principles. We collect the information requested in this form to establish and administer your superannuation account, provide insurance cover where applicable, communicate with you, and meet our legal and regulatory obligations.   - I must add my physical or electronic signature, otherwise my application won't be accepted.
  - CBUS has the right to request more information to be satisfied that this is a genuine application.
