

Keep your super safe

Have you been targeted by those dodgy super review ads?

BE ON RED ALERT

If you see these tactics, it's time to pause and protect your super:

- ⚠ Too good to be true returns
- ⚠ Pressure to act fast
- ⚠ Requesting for personal details
- ⚠ Claims your fund is under performing
- ⚠ Unlicensed advisers

Scammers and some comparison sites may push you to share your personal information - or worse, your super savings. Don't let them make you a target.

TAKE ACTION - PROTECT YOURSELF & YOUR TEAM

You have the power to keep your super safe. Here's how:

- ✓ Ignore pushy ads and calls
  They're not offering you free help.
- ✓ Don't share personal info
  Never give out your email, phone number, or financial details.
- ✓ Clear your cookies and cache
  This reduces digital tracking.
- ✓ Hide suspicious ads
  Use built-in buttons on social media to hide unwanted ads.
- ✓ Be wary of high-fee traps
  Read between the lines - most scams lead to higher fees and risky schemes.
